

Hilton Head Island SAA chapter wins national award

The Hilton Head Island Chapter of the Society of Architectural Administrators recently received an award for "Best Contribution to the American Institute of Architects" for their 1986 "Architect's Selected Preview of Homes" which was a SpringFest event.

The award was presented at the SAA National Convention in Orlando, Fla., held in conjunction with the American Institute of Architects National Convention June 19-24. Scrapbook entries were submitted at the convention by individual chapters throughout the U.S. and were judged by a panel including the SAA's AIA Board Liaison, Christopher J. Smith, AIA.

Three local SAA chapter members attended the convention and accepted the award: Pam Cuthbertson, secretary; Joanee Neely, vice president/treasurer; and Connie Herrman, president.
